

Christian Acronym Devotions has 100+ Christian acronyms with a little devotion/story and prayer attached to each one. It all started with all of the initials people were using instead of speaking or spelling out sentences in a worldly sense so the author started looking for and dreaming up some Christian acronyms to share on an e-mail prayer chain. Everyone loved them so much that the game turned into a book that has been completed to which several copies have already been disseminated. The devotional stories are true testimonies and real life applicable teachings that have been experienced either by the author personally or those she has met over the years. Everyone that picks this book up shares that reading just one, stirs something in you to come back and read another. You cant just walk away. If you saw BABE, CSI, DUH or EAGLE knowing that it meant some Christian secret, wouldnt you want to read further? You may never look at life the same again. These acronyms are also great sermon and small group study idea starters especially if you are looking for new or old ideas with a fresh slant. This book offers something different for yourself or for your friend!
