

Number Three in the Double V Mysteries series: Dismount and Murder – Juliet Van Allen and Elmer Vartanian, casual partners in the business of murder – ferreting out murderers, that is – take us to fire-ravaged Bar Harbor, Maine, and the cool, green hills of Litchfield, Connecticut, in the summer of 1950. Elmer is called in by the heir of a wealthy estate to investigate his father’s suspicious death. A mansion, and a stable, full of suspects, its murder among the horse set as a horse show sets the pace for a weekend of suspense, intrigue, high fashion, and morals as low as they get.
