It's a heart-wrenching story but one that gives hope through the many examples of how the author persevered and never gave up trying to hold her family together. If there is Bipolar 1 disorder in your family, you have to get this book!--Jon Goodspeed, Editorial Director, North Atlantic Books I JUST WANT MY DAUGHTER BACK is a powerful narrative of a mother who lives with the turmoil of having a child with Bipolar 1- and the wide range of emotions that consume her and her family as this illness takes over. Through trial and error, both mother and daughter discover how determination and love in spite of a surprising twist in the road; can give way to a hopeful new beginning. Families suffering through the effects of mental illness quickly find themselves identifying with the writer's experiences, as they discover ways they, too, can come to terms with Bipolar 1.
