

Shellie Simones dream job as a Project Manager for an IT company turns into a nightmare when she finds herself the victim of sexual assault in the workplace. She attempts to report the perpetrator to Human Resources, but his uncle, the VP over the Finance division, tries to stop her by bribing her with an increase in her salary to keep it undisclosed. Shellie knows she cannot handle this problem alone anymore, so she confides in her friend Sandra Wilcom for support. She soon finds out, however, that Sandra has other things keeping her busy these days. Following a hurtful break-up with her boyfriend of three years, Sandra decides to hook up with their friend Eboni Gilliards husband while he and Eboni are having problems. At first, she did not expect the relationship to be more than a simple friendship, but soon after it begins, she becomes intrigued by just how far their connection can go. Just when Sandra thinks she has the perfect plan to keep Craig from going back to his wife, Shellie finds out about their relationship, and now Sandra is in jeopardy of losing everything. As this story unravels, all three women will become involved in a whirlwind of major life events that will change the dynamics of their relationship forever. Will their friendship survive the storm or is it Time to Walk Away?
